

On Tuesday, we went to the Eden, a hall belonging to the city of Lys-Lez-Lannoy for the rehearsal of the school choir and in the evening, we presented a show which was about the life of migrants. During the show, we sang many songs, the foreign students read different texts in their own languages, in English and in French, sometimes with the help of the French students, two foreign students danced and one sang a song and played the guitar.
