

On Wednesday, we went to Calais. The bus arrived at 9:45 am at the "Auberge des migrants" It is an association that helps the migrants in the area. We had a short visit of the site. Then, we helped the volunteers, some people worked in the kitchen, others sorted out tents, folded clothes. At lunch time, the meal we had, had been prepared by some of us. The same meal was distributed to the migrants in the area. In the afternoon, we went to Grande Synthe and listened to Mrs H el ene Verri e, a lady who told us about the situation migrants in this city. One hour later, we visited the Cap Blanc Nez. It was very beautiful!
