

Friday evening was nearly the time to say good bye to our foreign friends. We celebrated at school with all the students, the staff of the French school and the French parents.

