

On October 10th, 2017, the French students of the Erasmus + group went to Paris to visit the National Museum of the History of Immigration. The aim of this visit was first, to get more knowledge on the subject of immigration and also, to prepare the visit with the foreign students in March 2018.

